IMPACT OF PARTICIPATION ON MANAGERIAL AUTHORITY

Stella Mary O. P., St. Dominic's Priory, Carisbrooke, New Port, Isle of Wight, (UK)

Current society presents a picture of conflict and strife, not a little of it raging around the question of Participation. In these circumstances the impact of participation on managerial authority is having repercussive effects in every sector, where such authority exercised today.

This paper is an attempt to look at the situation hopefully through cybernetic spectacles.
